

IIGDA

The International Indie Game Developer's Association

RULES

- There will be three main elected officers:
President- Head of group, leads meetings, approves ideas.
Vice President- Presides over day to day activity.
Treasurer- Balances budget, works with President for fundraisers
- These positions will be elected once a year.
- If an officer resigns, the Chosen Freeholder will replace the officer, and the president will decide on a replacement for the position, which must be approved by Freeholders
- There are three elected officials: The Freeholders. There will be one named Chosen Freeholder, the head. These three will be installed to prevent the president from abusing his power.
- There will be a monthly meeting and newsletter, part of Bite By Byte.
- The meeting will occur in a chat room TBD on website.
- Members are encouraged to attend- Officers should. Guests may watch and answer questions, but no raise issues.
- A guest may apply for membership on the website to be made. In the monthly meeting, the guest must attend and a vote will be taken to allow the member in.
- Money must be raised by President and Treasurer to support domain costs and contest prizes.
- This group will not be mainly forum based. It only meets once a month, and is not a big deal unless you are a officer.
- Please Join!
